Some ball players carry as much as 52 articles in a suit case. Say a deck of cards and a change of neck tie.

According to a dispatch from San Francisco yesterday, W. R. Jackson, the local boy, has first base cinched with the Seals. The El Paso ball player has shown more form than any of the other candidates and only a blow-up can beat him out of the honors.

Following scores were made in the bowling match of last night:
